

THIRTY-FIRST PUBLIC SALE OF

RARE COINS

To Be Sold by Mail Auction to the Highest Bidder Without Reserve

Wednesday, September 14, 1927, by

M. H. BOLENDER

P. O. Box 34

Orangeville, Illinois

To Collectors—The coin season is rapidly approaching and here is a sale you will not want to miss. Therefore, look over the booklet carefully and send in some bids. This sale is especially rich in large copper cents and you will find some good specimens of silver dollars. In short, there appears to be a little of everything including some remarkable fractional currency and plenty of the popular commemorative half dollars. At every sale, several collectors express their regrets that they did not bid higher on some items. If you want a coin, you should make your bid high enough, and I will always buy as much below your bid as possible. All bids are faithfully and honestly executed as advantageously for the bidder as possible.

A commission of 5% will be charged for executing your bids and packing and sending out material. This charge is very low for the superior services I expect to render for you, and I am sure you will feel that it is justifiable. No charge made on any bids that are not successful.

My classifications and descriptions are based on knowledge gained through 15 years of earnest dealing in coins. I have endeavored to refrain from over-rating the quality of a lot, which is so common, I believe that the word "RARE" should not be over-worked.

Please remember my strong guarantee. If goods are not satisfactory (you are to be the judge), you are at liberty to return them without any danger of offending.

New bidders should send references or a deposit of at least 25 per cent of bids.

Coins will be bought as much below your bids as possible, as this is competitive bidding carried out in good faith.

If you do not know how much to bid on any item, write me and I shall be glad to inform you as to its value.

Receipted bills are not sent out after your remittance as this is unnecessary. Your check, draft, or money order itself is a receipt and we ask you to pay only once. However, if a 2-cent stamp is enclosed we will send receipt.

Some new unsolicited testimonials recently received:

"Assortment most pleasing. Am delighted."

"I am more than pleased."

"I congratulate you on your business methods."

"The coins I bought were very satisfactory indeed."

"I am more than pleased with the amount my coins brought at your auction sale."

"Am sorry that I did not get more."

"I am pleased to mention my entire satisfaction with the results of your service in handling my coins in your recent auction sale. Your grading and grouping of lots manifested experienced efficiency in these matters, and the net returns were really more than I expected."

Let me sell your collection or duplicates in these sales. Quick returns and satisfactory results are realized. My sales are held regularly each month. Write for terms.

Please bid by the piece unless stated to bid for the lot.

ANCIENT BRONZE COINS OF PONTUS

Note—Pontus was a portion of ancient Cappadocia, a region now in Asia Minor south of the Black Sea, formerly in the extreme southeastern corner of Europe. About the year 300 B.C. owing to its inability to resist and keep back the hordes of warrior emigrants that poured westward from Scythia and Central Asia, the throne of the Bosphorus was yielded to Mithridates, the Satrap or Persian governor of Pontus. In the break-up of the Persian Empire, consequent on the victories of Alexander, the kingdom of Pontus became fully established, so that about a century before the Christian era, its monarch Mithridates VI, known as the Great, was a formidable rival to Rome for the supremacy of the Eastern World. It was Mithridates who maintained a war of twenty years against the gigantic power of Rome—and but that he had to contend in succession against such leaders as Scyllia, Lucullus, and Pompey, might have triumphed.

Humphreys, celebrated authority on Ancient Coins, said that the coins of Pontus form an interesting series, those of Mithridates VI (the Great) being very fine. Here we have a lot of nice ones, the first in these sales. All are bronze and, because of the usual variation in size, it is stated in millimeters. Every general collector should have at least two or three of these wonderfully interesting ancient coins.

Note—I want to thank my customers for our pleasant dealings, particularly those who have been with me at each sale for some time. Next sale will be about Oct. 15. Get your coins in early for this sale.

Those duplicates in your collections are doing you no good. Send them in to be sold in my next sale now in preparation. Then, invest the proceeds in something you want. That is the way several prominent collectors are improving their collection with joy.

Here is what they thought of the sale of the Colman Collection of La Crosse, Wis.:

"I have your letter with which you enclosed your check as proceeds on the sale of the L. C. Colman coin collection. You have handled this matter in a very satisfactory manner, and we received more for the collection than we expected."

Yours truly,
 L. C. Colman estate,
 by C. E. Colman, administrator.

Let me sell your collection or duplicates in these sales. Quick returns and satisfactory results are realized. My sales are held regularly each month. Write for terms.
